

Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, — JUNE 16, 1900

From Wednesday's Daily.

Walter E. Locke has arrived at Santa Fe, where he will remain a few weeks.

B. B. Bass and family are at Santa Fe, on a visit to Mrs. J. L. Johnson, mother of Mrs. Bass.

Miss Jessie Bowden left last night for Kansas, where she will visit relatives and friends during the summer months.

W. W. Dickinson, of Tucson, Arizona, arrived this morning from the south. He has accepted a position as clerk at the Hotel Highland.

Charles F. Kirker, the south Second street cigar manufacturer, who was at the "Washington" base ball club, has secured a position in the Bernardo cigarette factory and gone to work.

John Stein, one of the superintendents of the Harvey eating house system, arrived last night, coming from the north and continuing south this morning.

At the annual meeting of the commercial club to-night at 8 o'clock, three directors to succeed Messrs. Marion, Otero and Clancy will be elected. Let all members attend.

Richard Heiser, the well-known general merchant and Indian trader at Cameron, was here yesterday and purchased a big stock of goods from local wholesale merchants.

George Kaseman has resigned his position at the water company's office in H. T. Boag, who is from Macon, Penn. The wife of Mr. Boag arrived from the east last night.

After a pleasant visit of a few weeks among Kansas and Missouri relatives and friends, Mrs. A. L. Conrad, wife of the popular local Santa Fe agent, turned to the city last night.

Judge J. R. McPhee and family left Santa Fe last night for the east. They will visit Washington, Philadelphie and New York and will be absent from the territory for several weeks.

Miss Anna Cloutier was a passenger for Boston last night, where she will visit her mother for a few weeks, after which she will return to St. Louis and in September continue her schooling there.

H. Hanley, who has been here the past year for his health, and who is one of the favorites at "Hoover-on-the-Carson," left this morning for Philadelphia. He expects to be absent about two months.

J. Bennett, formerly publisher of the Hillsboro Advocate, will soon start a new weekly paper at Deming, to be known as the Herald. In advance, The Citizen wishes Mr. Bennett and the Herald success.

Mrs. T. A. Moore, the accomplished wife of the yardmaster at Galtier, has returned home from a visit with friends in Kansas. She reports the Sunflower state in the midst of republican prosperity.

H. E. Anderson, who is an old time business gentleman of the Cochiti mining district, now located at the Alberto mine, is in the city, and will leave this evening for southern California, where he will remain for several weeks.

Rev. Bussey, who has charge of the reading rooms on the Santa Fe railway system, came from the north last night and continues west to San Marcial this morning. He reports the reading rooms well patronized and appreciated along the route.

The cabaret at the Gold Avenue hotel restaurant has been greatly enlarged by the addition of a number of first-class specimens from the mines of Hillsboro and Kingston. The specimens were brought to the city by John Corcoran, proprietor of the restaurant.

Mrs. W. T. Oliver, wife of the agent of the Santa Fe railway department, and Mrs. G. W. Scott, came in the city to-day on business. It is stated that the great golden camp is a little dull at present, but that everything will be moving along smoothly in a very short time.

Mr. T. A. Maxwell, with Fred Ward and wife Miss Maxwell came in from Galtier last night, and the ladies joined us to Kansas City and Missouri cities, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Ward stopped over here for a day, and will follow them to-morrow night.

The postoffice quarters are being thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. The walls and ceiling are receiving a new coat of calcimine, and the wood furniture will undoubtedly be treated to a new coat of paint. It is now a settled fact, for the next few years, that the location of the postoffices will remain in the present quarters—the Barnet building on south Second Street.

A concrete cement bearing is being put in the new building on First street, which will soon be occupied by the Standard Meat and Supply company. Work is being done by James McClellan. Mr. Ward, who is engaged in the law office of Hon. Nell B. Field, are two of the luckiest people in the city.

A short time ago Mr. Munsterman took a chance for Dr. Haynes' hand-some bay team, buggy and harness, and captured the prize hands down. Last night he was a blithe boy just as we saw the Haynes rig.

Sometime ago Ralph Hunt desired a bicycle and as promised to purchase a ticket. His days are numbered, he took a chance in a scheme烹调ed by Ross Merritt. Bert Baker and Louis Hunter, who growing tired of bicycle riding and wanting to do more walking, wanted to get rid of their wheels. Hunt was present last night at a meeting, and, in triumphantly walked away with two of the bicycles. Hunt, as stated above, having gone to Mr. Munsterman. Ralph states that he now has three wheels, and they cost him all told only fifty cents.

VISIT WISCONSIN.

It is almost certain, from what The Citizen can learn, that one of the best auto clubs of Albuquerque will become a competitor for the big cash prize offered by Wisconsin auto clubs.

Counts of July colors, the member of the Browns club and the Workmen are starting the contest. One of the clubs will right away, and the other will help the good citizens of that town to make the Prairie July celebration a big success.

THE MODERN BEAUTY.

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face glows with its beauty. If her system is not cleansed, it will certainly do you good. Harry Dong Co. and Comptonian Drug Store.

Prosperous Building Association.

The Citizens publication in another column gives an annual statement of the Mutual Building Association of this city. The figures shown are exceedingly gratifying to the stockholders, and are evidence of careful management on the part of the Board of directors. This house institutions is able to better for investors and partners than any outside association and every dollar is placed carefully in first-class stocks that can be bought at any time, and sufficient funds are kept up to meet emergency. Parties contemplating making improvements will be well to investigate the plan by which money can be secured. Such information will be furnished by any of the officers.

CEMENT SIDEWALKS.

Architect Bapp Auctions to Secure the Services of James McCormick.

J. H. Bapp, the architect of the territorial capitol—the handsome building dedicated the other day—came in from Santa Fe last night and registered at Sturges' European. He was met by James McCormick, Albuquerque's famous cement sidewalk builder, and the two held a conference of an hour, during which it was agreed that the purpose of making estimates on cement sidewalks for the capital grounds. Mr. Bapp accompanied Mr. McCormick to Santa Fe, and it is understood that he is anxious for the latter to do the cement sidewalk work mentioned, above. Mr. McCormick will return to the city to-night.

Charlie Irwin, one of the players in "The Washington" base ball club, has secured a position in the Bernardo cigarette factory and gone to work.

John Stein, one of the superintendents of the Harvey eating house system, arrived last night, coming from the north and continuing south this morning.

At the annual meeting of the commercial club to-night at 8 o'clock, three directors to succeed Messrs. Marion, Otero and Clancy will be elected. Let all members attend.

Richard Heiser, the well-known general merchant and Indian trader at Cameron, was here yesterday and purchased a big stock of goods from local wholesale merchants.

George Kaseman has resigned his position at the water company's office in H. T. Boag, who is from Macon, Penn. The wife of Mr. Boag arrived from the east last night.

After a pleasant visit of a few weeks among Kansas and Missouri relatives and friends, Mrs. A. L. Conrad, wife of the popular local Santa Fe agent, turned to the city last night.

Judge J. R. McPhee and family left Santa Fe last night for the east. They will visit Washington, Philadelphie and New York and will be absent from the territory for several weeks.

Miss Anna Cloutier was a passenger for Boston last night, where she will visit her mother for a few weeks, after which she will return to St. Louis and in September continue her schooling there.

H. Hanley, the well-known and popular civic at the clothing store of Simon Stern, is arranging to take a lay-off of ten days, and visit the Sulphur and James hot springs. He expects to get away from the city about June 20th.

In accordance with previous arrangements Attorney McMillen, with his wife and children, and Mrs. Hartland McMillen, left last night for Southern California. Mr. McMillen will return in a few weeks to the bar, but the family will remain for several months.

Julian Seales, the general baggage master of the Santa Fe Pacific, Southern and San Joaquin railroads, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

H. Isaacs, of Los Angeles, is in the city with a room at the Grand Central. He is the general baggage master for the Santa Fe Pacific, Southern and San Joaquin railroads.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

H. Isaacs, of Los Angeles, is in the city with a room at the Grand Central. He is the general baggage master for the Santa Fe Pacific, Southern and San Joaquin railroads.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Julian Waite, of Bernalillo N. M., is in the metropolis to-day. He is here on business and pleasure, and expects to return south to-morrow morning.

Mr. Ansel Maloy, who resided in this city years ago, but for the past few months staying at Bland and Albermarle, came in from the north last night and has a room at Sturges' European.

Miss Anna Cloutier, who has been spending some time back in Kansas and Missouri, came on to visit my wife.

Does Your Head Ach?

Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Boils or pimples? These are sure signs of poisoning.

From what poisons?

These poisons that are always found in constipated bowel.

If the contents of the bowel are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, then poisonous substances are more easily absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease.

There is a common sense cure.

AYER'S PILLS

They insure an easy and natural movement of the bowels.

You will find the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

with the pills will hasten recovery. It cleanse the blood from all impurities and is a tonic to the nerves.

We the Doctor.

Our Medical Department has the most eminent physicians in the field. We are here to tell you what you are suffering from. Write to us without cost.

DE J. AYER,
New Haven.

Check of said District Court.

May 26, 1900.

NOTICE OF SUIT.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF BERNALILLO—TERCERY OF NEW MEXICO,

Between: VICTOR CHAVEZ, Plaintiff, and JOHN H. STINGLE, C. P.; JOHN WILLIAMS, B. W.; H. A. STEVENS, and N. E. STEVENS, serjeant, A. D. Johnson, Defendants.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,

et al., et al.

Plaintiff, Victor Chavez, et al.,

versus Defendants, John H. Stingle, et al.,